Disciplinary History

1. Have you ever been found responsible for a disciplinary violation at any institution of higher education, whether related to academic misconduct or behavioral misconduct, that resulted in a disciplinary action? These actions could include, but are not limited to: probation, suspension, removal, dismissal, or expulsion from the institution.
 - Yes
 - No
2. Have you ever been adjudicated guilty or convicted of a misdemeanor, felony, or other crime?
 - Yes
 - No

Note that you are not required to answer 'yes' to this questions, or provide an explanation, if the criminal adjudication or conviction has been expunged, sealed, annulled, pardoned, destroyed, erased, impounded, or otherwise ordered by a court to be kept confidential.

If you answered 'yes' to either or both questions, please attach (or send an email to sce@providence.edu) an essay that gives the approximate date of each incident, explains the circumstances, and reflects on what you have learned from the experience.

Note: applicants are expected to immediately notify the institutions to which they are applying should there be any changes to the information requested in this application, including disciplinary history.

Providence College admits students of any race, color, national and ethnic origin, sex, religion, disability, or age to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the college. It does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national and ethnic origin, sex, religion, disability, or age in the administration of its education policies, admission policies, scholarship and loan programs, and athletic and other College-administered policies.

Providence College is in compliance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1991. If you would like the School of Continuing Education to be aware of any special needs as covered by this legislation, please contact one of our advisers: sce@providence.edu or call 401-865-2487.

Note: your application is incomplete until all official materials have been received. Incomplete applications expire one year from date of receipt.

By my signature, I certify that the information I have provided is accurate and complete. The Providence College School of Continuing Education (SCE) may deny an application or rescind the acceptance if the information is not complete and accurate.
