CALLING ALL CAKE DECORATORS! ENTRIES OPEN FOR ANNUAL CAKE SHOW AT BRISTOL COMMUNITY COLLEGE ON APRIL 1

No matter what your age or your level of experience, consider entering the 10th annual Bristol Community College Cake Competition, on Saturday, April 1, 2017. Entry is now open for this year's competition.

The theme of this year's Cake Competition is It's all Fun and Games, and it's your chance to conceive and create a confection that reflects traditional board games, card games, puzzles, along with modern video gaming. The event is also seeking romantic, expressive, creative cakes for the wedding cake division of the show.

The day is full of demonstrations and displays, and your cake could gain you glory!

Students from Bristol Community College's Culinary Arts Program will sell food and beverages at the event to enjoy while taking in a competition or checking out the free demonstrations. Local aspiring food entrepreneurs will also sell treats and baking products at the festive event.

The annual Cake Show is a fundraiser for SkillsUSA, a nonprofit organization that helps high school and college students train for careers in trade, technical, and skilled service occupations.
