

BRISTOL COMMUNITY COLLEGE TO HOST FREE SEAL YOUR CORI WORKSHOPS ON SEPTEMBER 27 AND 28

Have you been turned away from education, employment, or housing because of your criminal offender information record (CORI)? If yes, we can help.

Bristol Community College will offer Seal Your CORI workshops to provide participants with information on how to seal their active CORI to overcome obstacles in achieving goals towards a successful academic path or career choice. These events are FREE and open to the public.

Seal your CORI Workshops

Wednesday, September 27, from 6-7 p.m., at the BCC Attleboro campus, 11 Field Road.

Thursday, September 28, from 6-7 p.m., at the BCC Fall River campus, 777 Elsbree Street.

Currently in the United States, more individuals are being released than are being admitted to state and federal prisons. This means that many individuals will be seeking training or assistance in looking for work or opportunities to obtain skills.

Registration is required for attendance. Please register online at <http://surveys.bristolcc.edu/s3/Fall2017CORI> or call 774.357.2511
