

BCC WOMEN'S CENTER PRESENTS A MEMORY, A MONOLOGUE, A RANT, AND A PRAYER ON MARCH 29

Bristol Community College joins the global movement to stop violence against women and girls.

The BCC Women's Center presents a benefit reading of A Memory, A Monologue, A Rant, and A Prayer on Wednesday, March 29, 2017, from 11 a.m. - 12:30 p.m., in the BCC Grimshaw-Gudewicz Art Gallery, 777 Elsbree St., Fall River, MA.

This event is free and open to the public. Donations welcome. Proceeds benefit the Women's Center at SSTAR.

A Memory, A Monologue, A Rant, and A Prayer: Writings to Stop Violence against Women and Girls is a groundbreaking collection of monologues by world-renowned authors and playwrights, edited by Eve Ensler and Mollie Doyle.

The mission of the Women's Center at Bristol Community College is to empower women through advocacy and education. The Center is dedicated to organizing and facilitating programs, workshops, lectures, and seminars aimed at improving self-esteem, developing leadership skills, promoting diversity, and raising awareness about women's and gender issues. The Center commits itself to the support and progress of all students in their personal, academic, and future job needs.
